Department of History presents:

'We are our own Liberators'

Friday 19 October, 6-8pm

A40, Sir Clive Granger Building

'We are our own Liberators' uncovers the hidden history of the Black Liberation Front. Formed in 1971 by former members of the Black Panther Movement in Britain, the BLF campaigned against police racism and promoted black history and culture amongst black communities in Britain.

Documentary screening followed by Q&A with guest speaker, filmmaker Amelia Francis, Young Historians Project
